

NATION-WIDE STRIKE OF FARMERS IS CALLED TODAY

HEAD OF I. N. U. TO VISIT DIXON AND SPEAK HERE

Samuel Insull to Speak on "Everybody's Business."

Seldom will the citizens of Dixon have the opportunity to hear one of the leading business men of America as they will on next Tuesday evening when Samuel Insull, president of the Illinois Northern Utilities company will speak here. Mr. Insull is a much sought after man. To attend directors' meetings of the many boards of which he is a member and to make speeches to business men and electricians from Boston to San Francisco his time is taken for weeks ahead. To obtain a personal interview to receive his impressions of the business situation would be almost impossible.

Mr. Insull arranged with Vice President E. D. Alexander to be here next Tuesday for a meeting of superintendents of the utilities company. The Chamber of Commerce requested him to speak before their membership. Because this might keep some man, woman or youth from hearing this remarkable man it was decided to throw this meeting open to the public at large. Mr. Insull will speak at the Elks' club and unless the five hundred capacity of the lodge room is taxed the citizens of Dixon will certainly have a speaker and a visitor to Dixon for which he has done much and is planning more.

Was Edison's Aid
Having early in life taken an interest in things electrical, Mr. Insull came to America from England to be private secretary to Thomas A. Edison. He caught the vision for the possibilities of the electrical business and soon became associated in the management of power stations. As president of the Commonwealth Edison Company of Chicago he is now the controlling factor in the largest central power station in the world. Such an advance in the 39 years since he was associated with Mr. Edison in the installation and perfection of the first central station, that of New York City, merits the respect which is accorded him by those in the electrical field.

No more interesting reading is obtainable for those interested in the march of progress than one of Mr. Insull's speeches of reminiscence. He describes the early struggles and trials and accomplishments of Mr. Edison in his attempt to master the new and powerful force—electricity. They were as brilliant then over obtaining 700 lights from the same dynamo and through cables eight miles long as we would probably be today if we could telephone to Mars.

"Everybody's Business"
Mr. Insull's subject Tuesday evening will be "Public Utilities—Everybody's Business." This is a question which is receiving a great deal of attention at this day and must receive more in the next few years. To hope to appreciate the size and the significance of this question means one must hear Mr. Insull. That he will say things of interest to Dixon locally there can be no doubt for the Utilities company have definite plans for their station here.

Among the many companies of which Mr. Insull is president or on the boards of directors are: Central Ill. Public Service Co., Ill. Ice Co., Interstate Public Service Co., Southern Indiana Power Co., Louisville & Northern Railway Lighting Co., Kentucky Light & Power Co., Virginia, Tenn. Public Service Co., Nebraska City Utilities Co., Missouri Gas & Electric Co., Public Service Co. of Oklahoma, Southern Wisconsin Electric Co., Michigan Gas & Electric Co., Twin States Gas & Electric Co.

TWO MORE TELL OF HAVING BEEN WITH ACTRESSES

Man and Woman Confess to Chicago Police Today.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 18.—Two more people, a man and a woman, surrendered to police today in connection with the death of two young actresses, whose bodies were found Sunday in Grant park.

Three men arrested yesterday had already confessed they took the girls to the lake front park and left them there, intoxicated. A fourth man, named by these three, is believed to have left Chicago early Sunday on a freighter, bound for Buffalo.

Another man, a taxi driver, told police Tuesday that he had thrown the girls out of his taxicab in the park because they became boisterous, but police, after hearing the story told by the others, refused to believe him.

The inquest into the death of the girls, Maree Ramey of Altoona, Pa., and Lillian Thompson, of New York, will be re-opened this afternoon.

After questioning the man, who gave his name as Clyde Morrison and his occupation as night watchman, and his woman companion, the police released them.

Marcus Brumberg, one of the three who confessed yesterday, declared Morrison was not in their party.

NEW GREEK PREMIER TAKES OFFICE WHILE MOB CHEERS EX-KING

Venizelos Left Athens Secretly Yesterday Afternoon.

Athens, Nov. 17.—(By Associated Press.)—George Rhalilis, the new premier of Greece with three members of his cabinet, took the oath of office before Admiral Condouriotis, the regent, at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Those who qualified in company with the Premier were M. Gounaris, minister of war; M. Baldaris, minister of interior and M. Callogeropoulos, minister of finance. M. Rhalilis will hold the portfolio of minister of foreign affairs.

Immediately after he had qualified for office, M. Rhalilis demanded the regent's resignation. The other members of the new cabinet will take the oaths before Queen Mother Olga.

Venizelos Left Athens

Former Premier Venizelos left Athens today. Bands of civil guards and men from many military units, went through the city during the day acclaiming former King Constantine and firing revolvers as a token of rejoicing.

A demonstration occurred in the city today but the number of persons taking part in it was not large. There were motor cars and carriages carrying large flags and portraits of former King Constantine were prominently displayed. During the demonstration shots were fired, but no attempt was made to maintain order.

Pandemonium Reigned

As night settled over the city the streets were resounding with a pandemonium of yells and shouts, and pistol and rifle shots. Gangs of soldiers walked through the city tooting horns and blowing whistles. The offices of the various ministries were illuminated, and the wild parade continued until late in the evening.

Shortly after sunset sentinels who had been stationed at the home of former Premier Venizelos were removed, and the building was left dark and deserted.

M. Venizelos left the city secretly at 3 o'clock this afternoon on his way to Nice. The Greek yacht Narcissus was waiting for him and was escorted by three British war vessels.

IMPOSED CONDITIONS

Athens, Nov. 18.—(By Associated Press.)—Acceptance of the premiership by George Rhalilis was conditioned upon the written resignation of former Premier Venizelos, assurance that order would be maintained and that plots by Venizelist officers would be suppressed, the new premier said today.

"The regent has already been assured by the commander of the troops in Athens, General Othonaios," he continued, "that order will be kept, and that there will be no attempt at a coup d'etat. Constantine is wanted by the people."

"Reasons for the defeat of M. Venizelos were: first, the Greeks had a chance to revolt against the regime of arrest and murder which has been in power for the last three years. I, myself, was several times in prison, and all the people you see about me were persecuted and locked up. Second, the Greeks voted against the foreign domination which was supporting M. Venizelos," said the premier.

WILL OPPOSE CONSTANTINE

Paris, Nov. 18.—(By Associated Press.)—Conversations over the situation in Greece created by the defeat of Venizelos are in progress between France and Great Britain. It was stated at the foreign office today.

"The expectation is that an understanding will be reached taking the form of a declaration of policy in which France and Great Britain, it is forecast, will reiterate their opposition to the return of former King Constantine to the throne.

The foreign office up to noon today had received no confirmation of the reports that Queen Mother Olga had been named regent of Greece. The unofficial report to that effect, however, was regarded as authentic it was said.

PRESIDENT-ELECT IN APPEAL FOR RETURN TO OLD PLAIN-LIVING

Reuniciation of Extravagance Keynote of His Address.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New Orleans, La., Nov. 18.—Plain living and square dealing were invoked by President-elect Harding, in a speech here today, as the nation's strongest reliance during the coming period of after-war readjustment.

"Sanity, clear thinking, common sense, honesty and co-operation" were among the qualities he named as prime necessities in meeting the demands of the new world order, and he declared material interests and national happiness would benefit if the United States became "a simple living people once again."

Whatever discouragements and reverses there have been, he declared, would be only temporary in character. He predicted that a "confident America" would solve its new problems on the simple basis of the old time virtues and would come through the reconstruction period stronger and more dependable than ever before.

Senator Harding's speech delivered at a luncheon of the New Orleans Association of Commerce also contained a message of assurance for the industrial development of the south and an expression of hope that the ties of commercial co-operation with Latin America would be strengthened by every possible means.

The address was a part of a five hour visit to New Orleans by the President-elect, who came from his vacation in Texas to take ship for a voyage to the Panama canal zone. He said in part:

"I believe the American people have come to realize that we must face momentous problems, and must face them with resolute courage and practical wisdom and patriotic determination. There must be no reason for pause or excuse for despair, nor place for pessimism. If we are effective in solving our problems at home we shall be better able to help solve those of the world as befits our part in modern civilization."

"The world has never witnessed such an upheaval as that which came with the great war; its civilization was never so sorely tried. Inevitably there must be reconstruction. We must not waste the debris of war and continue to build on solid foundations. We cannot escape all the consequences of fevered war or the unsettled conditions of its aftermath. There will be endless discouragements but a confident America will face them with good courage. And we will win."

Renounce Extravagance

GERMANY WANTS MEMBERSHIP AS OTHERS' EQUAL

Foreign Minister Simons Tells of His Desires.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Aix La Chapelle, Nov. 17.—Constantine Feherenbach, German chancellor, and Dr. Simons, foreign minister, concluded here today a tour of the Rhineland districts, and delivered addresses in which they discussed domestic and foreign issues.

Dr. Simons, referring to the allocation of the districts of Eupen and Malmedy to Belgium, declared Germany viewed the decision of the council of the League of Nations as only a "transitory solution."

"We do not desire to enter the League of Nations," he said, in referring to the meeting of the assembly of the league at Geneva, "unless there is an intention, plainly indicated, to receive us as equals. It would be imprudent to force ourselves into a society which contains who declare they will walk out in the event certain other folks enter."

Dr. Feherenbach, reiterating that the peace of Versailles did not deserve the designation of a "peace," declared that Germany nevertheless would live up to it and had already demonstrated her determination by her work in making coal deliveries and in disarmament.

EAST TAKES LEAD IN FIRST DAY'S GAMES IN Y. M. C. A. TOURNAMENT

Ladies Going Strong in Big Membership Campaign.

With a bang, bomb and hurrah the Y membership campaign opened and from all indications the people of Dixon have begun to realize that the Y is an institution of which it is an honor to be a member, and that they appreciate the work that the Association is trying to do for the men, women and boys of Dixon.

The result of the first day's struggle between the East and West gives the East a running start of 554 points over the West, the East annexing 744 to the 390 of the West. It was the ladies who were responsible for this large margin, as their eastern team from Wellesly ran up a total of 307 points, the largest score of the day.

The ladies ran strong in all their games and their points were all high—still they say they haven't begun to fight. They sure will keep the men humping to keep up their end of the scrap.

In the first game with only four teams in the field they ran up 488 points to the men's 646, and the men have 12 teams in the fray.

At the noon luncheon at the Y on Wednesday the reports were received on the first day's games and in several cases the dope was upset, which only added to the interest in the reports. The excellent scores during the next three days should run way up in the three figures. The head coaches are busy bolstering up their weak teams and spreading pep and ginger all along the line.

Results of Tuesday's Games
Illinois 30; Harvard 15.
Chicago 65; Yale 192.
Northwestern 40; Cornell 34.

FARMERS URGED NOT TO SELL AT PRESENT PRICE

National Farmers' Union Calls Upon All Producers.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 18.—A nation-wide producers' strike to combat the falling prices of farm products was urged in a call sent out today by the National Farmers' Union to its local unions throughout the country.

The call, in the form of a resolution adopted at the national convention of the organization here, went forward to secretaries of local branches of the organization, which represent producers of grain, cotton, wool and livestock, said to number 800,000.

The proposed strike was urged in retaliation for what the convention considered abnormal deflation in prices of farm products, through which it was asserted American farmers have been robbed of one billion dollars in reduced value of products now on hand.

Reduced Production.

Reduction of production in the future was threatened "unless the prices of our products are fairly readjusted to the end that we may obtain just returns for our labors and investments," in another resolution approved by the convention.

Officials of the organization pointed out that members were not under obligation to obey terms of the strike but expressed the belief that such a movement would be effective.

A conference of representatives of all farmers' organizations of the country was called to meet in St. Louis Dec. 16 to consider the creation of a national farm marketing board.

Adopted Last Night.

The resolutions were adopted in executive session last evening and announced later by officers of the organization. Adoption was preceded by considerable discussion, officials said.

Concerning the St. Louis meeting to create a national farm marketing board, Charles S. Barrett of Union City, Ga., who was elected president of the union for the fifteenth consecutive time, said today:

"The purpose of the meeting is not to form or create a corner but to find a reasonable, rational way to market our products. The urban population is should welcome such a step, as it is the instability of the market that has caused inflated prices for them and deflated prices for the producer."

72 PER CENT REDUCTION.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 18.—Advice to farmers to curtail production activities and wait for price adjustment was given in statements made today by J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation and C. W. Hunt, president of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation. "Prices are frightfully low," Mr. Howard said. "All farm products have declined from 50 to 100 per cent, an average arrived at this week approximating 72 per cent. The farmer doesn't think he ought to take a 72 per cent reduction and be compelled to buy clothing and farm machinery at a 15 per cent reduction. When other commodities come down in proportion to our products, we will go ahead with our production."

Mr. Hunt declared that the Iowa Federation did not contemplate a strike and was not in favor of one. He gave figures showing that the cost of production was higher than the market price in several cases. "Prices are too low," Mr. Hunt declared. "We think the farmers ought to slow down until there is a price adjustment. No one is suffering. No one is in want of food products. The farmer is willing to take a loss but he can't lose all."

PHIDIAN ART CLUB—

The regular meeting of the Phidian Art club was held at the home of Mrs. Collins Dysart Tuesday afternoon.

The president, Mrs. H. C. Warner, reported that plans for the meeting to arouse interest in Child Welfare work have been perfected. Mrs. Ketherstone, of Chicago, will speak to the women of this community, Dec. 15th.

Miss Noble, who had attended a conference for Child Welfare Workers, spoke interestingly of the importance of this work. Mrs. McWethy, president of the Parent-Teachers' association, pledged the support of that organization.

In place of the usual music Mrs. Herbert Martin read a short article on Italian music, telling of Italy's neglect of all instrumental music for two centuries. During this time interest was centered in opera, which everyone attended. The Italians in this country, realizing the need of encouraging a taste for music in the very young, have formed the Unity Opera Co., in New York. Parents and children of any age, attend.

Mrs. F. X. Newcomer read a most interesting paper, "The Most Influential Women of Italy." Mrs. Newcomer first told of the condition of women under the influences of paganism before Christianity enfranchised and elevated her. Virtuous and domestic women were not sufficiently educated to have much influence. In this goddess, yet brilliant age Cleopatra lived. In sharp contrast to the reign of this immoral and selfish queen of Italy, Queen Helena's home life is ideal and she is ever ready to help her people.

Mrs. Newcomer told of the work of Madame Montesori, a woman who had a wonderful vision. Her study of psychology aroused her interest in the sub-normal child. Realizing the importance of right methods in early education, Madame Montesori, by her lectures and writings, has accomplished much in Italy and America.

A social hour in the dining room closed a very pleasant afternoon.

good will displayed in their labors for others.

Another society meriting praise is the Palmyra Mutual Aid society, whose members at their last meeting made garments for the hospital.

The hospital management is always grateful to those who bestow their time and money on gifts for the institution. The needs of a hospital are many, and in remembering those who are ill, one but discharges one of the many responsibilities which are shared by all, but recognized by few.

WERE SURPRISED—

Acting Supt. I. B. Potter of the south side schools and his wife were happily surprised Tuesday evening at the school house.

A number of the high school faculty and office force were instrumental in planning and carrying out the surprise, doing some very intricate and difficult maneuvers in getting the Superintendent and Mrs. Potter to go to the schoolhouse at just such a time, but they accomplished the feat and were repaid in seeing the two innocent victims of the strategy greatly astonished.

At 6:30 an appetizing three-course banquet was served in three courses, after which games and music occupied the attention of all, the evening proving one of much enjoyment.

A GOOD LUCK PARTY—

A good luck party in honor of Misses Inez and Esther Kested was held at the home of Miss Verna Beede, Friday evening. Twenty-three friends were present. Games formed a large share of the evening's entertainment. Music was also enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening. As a remembrance from their friends, a handsome string of red beads and a beautiful brooch were presented to the Misses Kested, the presentation being made by Miss Wilfred Shawger. The Kested family are soon leaving for their new home in Dixon, followed by the best wishes of their many friends.

AT SHAWGER HOME—

The Young Woman's Bible class of the M. E. church was delightfully entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ed. Shawger on the Sterling road. Fifty-two enjoyed the scramble dinner, appetizing roast goose and chicken being the chief dishes supplied by the hostess. After the delicious dinner a business meeting was held and then the rest of the evening was spent in games and music.

to our power and emphasize our stability if we become a simple living nation once more. It will add to the sum total of our happiness.

"The big thing for all America to realize now and always is the dignity of productive labor. No matter how humble, the producers are the makers of the essentials of civilization and we must, each and all of us, accept and discharge our duty of producing for the world or of ministering to the needs of comfort or progress of mankind.

"Ours are millions of broad acres eager to respond to man's cultivating touch. Millions more are awaiting reclamation. We have not half revealed our mines nor measured our water power. We are unmatched in genius and unexcelled in industry. We are progressive in education. We are free in religion and mean to stay free; and mean to be free in press especially. We have more than the beginning of an adequate transport system; we are awakened to the possibilities of inland waterways and tardily alert to the imperative need of a merchant marine to widen commerce, world influence and national safety.

Praises for Southland

"We have been talking about the new south for a score of years and more. It is now in spirit, new in development. I would like to see it now in realization. I would like to acclaim a southland with added good fortune and greater self reliance through diversified agriculture and I would like to see a southland aflame with industry, with transportation ever a growing problem."

"Here we are today at one of the great gateways of Latin-America. Somehow I feel that the western hemisphere is our special field of influence and trade. Commerce marks the highways of friendship as well as rivalry. Our trade routes by sea to the south ought to be as dependable as our railway routes at home and there ought to be sufficient and reassuring comity and concord among Americans—south, central and north. Bind our friendship with the ties of trade and we shall make it indissoluble.

"We have ships now, we have the commercial foundations, our future lies in policies and practices. We must buy as well as sell to be sure, but we need the expanding trade policy, its efficient agents in salesmen and credits and the simple, practical understanding that commerce is the

Says His Prescription

Has Powerful Influence

Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Public Drug & Book Company has been appointed agent for Allenrh in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money to all who state they received no benefit.

life blood of material existence. Our great assurance at home lies in a virile, intelligent, resolute people in a land unravaged by war, at enmity with no people, envying none—coveting nothing, seeking no territory, striving for no glories which do not become a righteous nation. This reality cannot, will not fail, if each of us does his part.

"There has been a wild contemplation of earnings, whether in wages or dividends, in terms of dollars rather than in terms of purchasing power. We must be more concerned with the substance of reward for activity than in this coin measurement. The tide of good fortune will ever flood and ebb, which is God's way of teaching us the changing tides. Greed must not expect to ride exclusive at the flood and expect contentment to recede alone.

"No law can alter nature or change her varying moods. We have not yet learned to combat destructive weather and the law of supply and demand is eternal; but we may stem their rigors and minimize their penalties. We want fortune a common possession in America; we want the cotton grower of the south to have his becoming reward with the wool grower and the wheat farmer of the north; we want southern factories to be tuned to the music of the mills of the north. We want your ports to send their cargoes under the American flag to bear the messages of peace and good will to all parts of the earth. There is no sectionalism in righteous American ambitions; it is this wonderful and incomparable United States of America, which sets our hearts aglow with becoming aspirations and patriotic love—the America of the constitution, free and confident of the morrow."

A basket social will be held at the Lievan school, south of Dixon, Friday evening, Nov. 19. An interesting program is being prepared by the teacher and pupils. Ladies please bring baskets. Conveyances will leave Rowland's Drug Store at 7:15. Gertrude Rogers, teacher. 27013

IRISH HOME RULE

The Irish Home Rule bill passed by the House of Commons is designed primarily to prevent religious civil war in Ireland. It is not the final word of British concessions. But it is, above all, a peace measure; and Ireland needs peace at present more than she needs anything else.
The new bill gives a separate parliament to the Protestants in the north and a separate parliament to the Catholics in the south and west. A union of the two will result when both desire it. But, for the present, while religious passion runs high, it would be criminal folly for the House of Commons to force a single parliament upon the antagonistic elements. The northern Protestants would rebel against Catholic rule and Ireland would be more aflame than it is now.
The Dominion of Canada was not established as a self-governing unit by compelling all Canadians to join the union. The Northwest Territory, British Columbia and Prince Edward Island entered the dominion at different dates after its foundation. Newfoundland is still outside the dominion. Great Britain has done no more than follow the Canadian precedent in declining to compel all parts of Ireland to accept united home rule.

In the first stage of passionate resentment against being refused governmental control over the northern Protestants, the south and west of Ireland may refuse to accept self-government. If that emergency occurs, commission government will be exercised. Nobody has suggested a better alternative. Anarchy must be prevented. And anarchy would occur without a temporary expedient to carry on the governmental function against a boycott.
The measure of home rule granted to Ireland is not fully dominion self-government. That is to say, neither of the Irish parliaments is empowered to equip a force of militia to maintain a navy. The self-governing colonies enjoy these privileges, but only because their loyalty to the British brotherhood of commonwealths is beyond question. The world is now trying to limit armaments. Insistence by Irishmen upon the right to add to the world's armies and navies would only add to the world's burden. Not strife, but peace is Ireland's only salvation.
Ireland should forget the past and undertake to prove Irishmen at home have constructive ability. When that is demonstrated, and all Irish factions unite, they can undoubtedly amend the home rule act to suit themselves.

JOE'S TURKEY

The man who is "as poor as Joe's turkey" is poor indeed. For the story runs that this particular turkey was so poor that he "had to lean up against the fence in order to gobble."

With Thanksgiving time so near and visions in sight of a fat, juicy gobbler lying in the roasting pan with amputated legs in the air, the picture of Joe's turkey, thin, scrawny bird, comes to mind. Just how the term originated is hard to discover. A search of the entire Book of Job throws no light on the mystery. There's no mention of a turkey there. Job's obsession was boils. Job surely had his troubles, but no turkey.

On Thanksgiving Day in millions of American homes the turkey promises to be the center of the scenery. The folks will gather in the living room and talk of the weather—but they'll be thinking of the browning turkey in the kitchen oven. Odors wafting from there will give an appetizing charm to it all. And abstract discussions will only cease when mother says: "Everybody come. Dinner's ready. Willie, you bring grandpa's chair. Now, father, ask the blessing." Oh, boy, isn't it a grand and glorious feeling! As a Thanksgiving thought may it not be hoped that every American family may sit down to roast turkey and cranberry sauce and all the trimmings! And may it not be hoped that no family is compelled to dine on so cadaverous a bird as Job's well-known turkey?

STILL FAR OFF

That long predicted panic is, according to latest reports from the usual source of panics, Wall Street, quite a distance in the future. So far, indeed, that Wall Street is beginning to think it will never arrive.

"Until the Federal Reserve notes begin to show a persistent contraction there will be no real letting down in business and consequent unemployment," asserts the Wall Street Journal.

"Nearly every week," continues the Journal, "shows a steady increase in the volume of these notes outstanding. Heavy payrolls and good wages have kept large amounts of currency in use."

This disconcerting failure of the panic to arrive on scheduled time must be very displeasing to those who turned their 50-cent dollars into mortgages and sat back to await the time when they could collect 100-cent dollars.

MAKING 'EM HAPPY

The three Turkey-gobbling nations make it clear in their agreement that they are "anxious to help Turkey develop her resources." The result will be "more happiness for the Turks."

Not many centuries ago nations came to the New World, fully as anxious to help the natives develop their resources. They did that very thing. And the natives were made happy. Indeed, most of them were rushed right off to their happy hunting grounds!

Our American Legion football team seems to be all to the good. Two Rockford teams have come down here and played without once crossing Dixon's ably defended goal lines.

Ohio's dry director rules that malt and hops may be sold only to bakers. This puts new meaning in those lines, "Hippity hop to the bakery shop."

ANTITOXIN TREATMENT.

Diphtheria is one of the least dangerous when promptly treated with antitoxin; it is one of the most dangerous when the antitoxin treatment is not given, or is delayed or insufficient.

In the days before we had antitoxin one out of every three children who had diphtheria died. Now, if antitoxin is used on the first or second day of the disease, ninety-eight out of every hundred children recover.

The sooner diphtheria is attended to the more certain is a cure.

In severe cases suspected to be diphtheria the doctor always gives diphtheria antitoxin at once. This is a wise thing to do, because the disease goes on rapidly, and a delay of 12 to 24 hours may be fatal. Besides, no harm is done, even if the disease proves not to be diphtheria.

The antitoxin, although making some people uncomfortable for a day or two, never does any real harm.

Whenever antitoxin is given to a person ill with diphtheria, it should be given in one dose, large enough and early enough.

Q.—What treatment would you advise for a boy of eight with a bad-looking case of flat feet or falling arches? Mrs. C. T. S.

A.—The treatment of an average case of flat feet consists in the main of a support (usually a steel plate, pad or adhesive plaster strapping) and exercises to build up the muscles which hold the foot in proper position. The plate is constructed from a plaster cast of the foot, made by an orthopedic surgeon. In practically all cases special shoes or those having the inner border of the sole and heel raised are used. The orthopedist will prescribe a suitable shoe and also the exercises that should be taken.

If you will send me your name and address I will send you a helpful pamphlet on Flat Foot and Other Foot Troubles.

Q.—Should the baby's milk be prepared or given raw? Mrs. E. R. H.

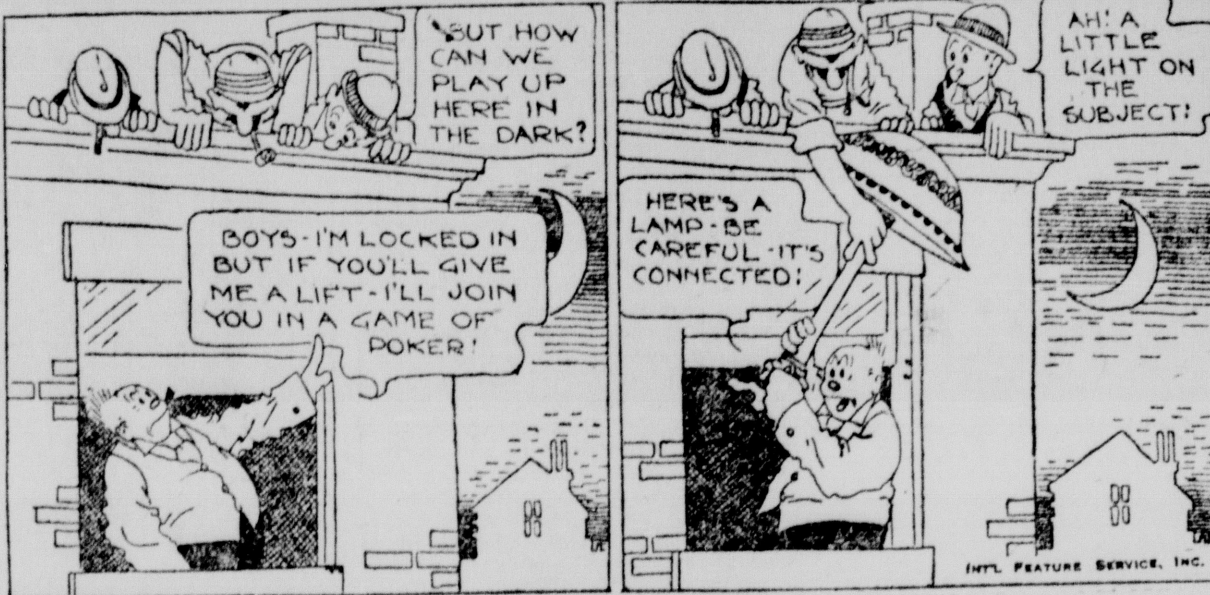

A.—The milk should be pasteurized. It is not safe to give raw milk to infants unless you are quite sure that it is not contaminated in any way and that it contains very few bacteria. It is not possible to secure these conditions except at very great expense, and hence the use of pasteurized milk, which is comparatively sterile, is advisable.

Such is Life

"Versatility is the secret of married happiness," exclaims Mrs. Adrian Ross— noted British writer.

To express it in plainer language, don't be always meeting him with a rolling pin when he strays home late. Be versatile. Sometimes use a base-half bat, or chunk of coal, if you're fortunate enough to have coal.

"Don't dampen your husband's order by declining to go to the theater with him, when he suggests it," continues Mrs. Ross.

"When he brings home candy and flowers for you, don't tell him that he had better have spent the money on a new pair of shoes for himself."

Here's another brilliant gem of an idea.

"You must be unselfishly selfish by spending more money on your own clothes."

In other words: Don't be a tightwad with your husband's money.

In more other words: Get inside of the gladdest of glad rags.

Some rather thoughtless person may imagine the above is to present as handsome appearance before one's husband as other dames do.

But that is only part of the answer.

If you spend all your husband's pay envelope on yourself he can't spend it on any other person.

"Don't be tired and worn out in the evening when your husband comes home," advises the writer.

Better let the work alone until he comes home. Thus you will feel more inclined to the theater party, the dance, or another frolic, and there'll be something for friend husband to do.

It goes without saying that the wife will not be as tired if she carefully leaves all the housework for the husband to tackle.

The neat little trick in the latter arrangement is that when the husband has to stay home of evenings to do the sweeping and ironing he can't be running around to poker parties and things like that.

DISINCLINATION
Another pupil who didn't show up in Meadow Grove school after the fall plume near Lily Pond was Cutie Cottontail.

But Cutie was different from Chip Chipmunk, who had played truant because he wished to visit the buckwheat field. His mother and daddy knew where he was. He was in bed.

At first Mrs. Cottontail thought it was carrotella or cabbageitis, because Cutie had stopped at Farmer Smith's sage-patch on his way home from the picnic and he had eaten a lot of things on top of the pie and cake and beet ice cream he had had for lunch. So she had called up her cousin, Mrs. Bunny, and asked what to do about it.

Mrs. Bunny said to put a wild-mustard poultice over the pain, but when Mrs. Cottontail told her that the pain never seemed to stay two minutes in the same place, being in one ear, then the other, then his paws or some place else, Cousin Bunny shrieked in dismay. "Then send for Dr. Mink at once. He may have the measles again!"

"Again!" Mrs. Cottontail disclaimed. "He never had them at all! Those were inkspots he got on in school, and I had to soak him in sour milk for a week."

But just the same, she did send for Dr. Mink and that gentleman came carrying a careful of bottles that would have put a drug store to shame. He felt Cutie's pulse and looked at his tongue and stuck a big thermometer in his mouth. Mr. and Mrs. Cottontail stood by anxiously awaiting to hear what he had to say.

Finally he took out the thermometer and looked at it through his spectacles—then he looked over his specks at Cutie.

"This young gentleman has a very severe case of disinclination," he announced, "and we must proceed to cure him at once."

IMAGINE OVER MY TROUBLES WHILE THE MOON SMILES AT ME.

Chryst's political rally was nearing its very successful conclusion, and the band was playing the last of the waltzes when Bob and I returned to the lawn. As we passed several of our friends, I noticed a lull in their conversation. It was as if all the world had entered into a conspiracy to keep still about something unpleasant concerning the Lorimers!

"So—you see?" I whispered to Bob.

"See—what?"

"Everybody knows about Mr. Best and the theft—and that the fellow is Jim's father-in-law!"

"Everybody?" said my husband impatiently. "Poor old Jim!" I murmured. "It's too late to stop the gossip. And your fault, Bob, too! If you had gone at once and told Katherine that you relied upon her discretion, well, you know she will do anything to please you, Bob!"

To this my husband made no reply, therefore I hurried on:

"There's Miss Miller now! Better late than never; go and dance with her!"

Very soon Bob Lorimer, the handsomest man in the crowd, was waltzing over the canvas with Katherine Miller, the loveliest girl in the town. Many were the comments I heard about them as I wandered aimlessly through the trees at the edge of the green.

"What an ideal pair they make!" simpered a silly old woman on the other side of the hedge. "They've been neighbors for years, you know. It's a wonder Bob Lorimer didn't marry her!"

At that, I shivered up and hunted, like a wounded pussy-cat, for an isolated spot to perch in. Soon I found a bench from which I could keep a jealous watch over Bob and the tigress. And as I watched, I meditated upon my misery.

I wasn't a bit more jealous than the average woman, I told myself. Not as bad as some. I wasn't jealous of all the fortunate women in the world.

For the time, Ann's importance faded out. I saw Bob encoring the waltz with Katherine. Even if I sent him to her, it was on a business errand. I felt awfully sorry for myself, sitting alone, in a corner, which I had selected especially because it was isolated!

"If you had a dear little baby to take care of, you wouldn't be so absurdly jealous of every woman Bob looks at. You know very well that if Bob had a little son he wouldn't care a penny about snapping the living gold of any girl's tresses, if the occasion required!"

All this I confided to the man in the moon, and it only made him smile! I thought at first that he didn't believe me, but finally I caught the hunch in his smile. It seemed to say:

"Why don't you make your husband as jealous as he makes you?"

"It wouldn't work," I answered the man in the moon. "Bob is so different from other men, you see."

Whereat a sinister look crossed the moon's round face, or maybe it was only some odd little cloud flecks which changed his expression. Whatever the cause, he assumed a cynical grimace for full two minutes. Whereat, I wept.

"I don't want anybody but Bob to love me," I protested to the man in the moon. "You're a horrid old thing to suggest it. My Bob is the nicest man you ever look down upon. Besides, there isn't a bachelor in sight I want to flirt with. There never is! And I never would flirt with another girl's husband. That's vulgar. But Bob—doesn't feel the same way!" Here I sobbed almost out loud. I was feeling so sorry for myself. "It isn't fair. It makes me feel somehow as if I were being cheated!"

The cloud passed across the moon and the face of the man upon it brooded into a broad grin. I wondered why.

Having accused my husband to a perfect stranger, I immediately began to defend him to myself.

"Bob never neglects me as he is doing tonight—he never would be so horrid, if he had a son! He would simply adore forever the mother of his boy!"

The waltz wailed out its final love-sick strains. Bob and Katherine danced the encore to a finish. I soaked my handkerchief with my tears, while the old moon smiled and smiled.

Better Lighting at Depot; Milk Supply; Discussed By Board

The question of better lighting at the Northwestern depot was a subject which was discussed lengthily last evening at a meeting of the publicity committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The lighting at the depot has been the subject of no small amount of criticism by the traveling public and citizens for some weeks and an effort will be made at once to better this condition.

A number of other important matters were discussed by the committee and action will be taken on some of these immediately. Suitable signs are to be placed at the depots, acquainting travelers of the fact that the view they get from the train window is not all of Dixon, but that the population is near the 10,000 mark and directing them to the heart of the city by the nearest route.

The question of inaugurating some plan to provide milk of better quality and report that milk offered for sale in Dixon is of a very inferior quality, was another subject that brought forth considerable comment. The committee favored immediate action to remedy this condition, which has been a source of considerable comment for many weeks. Reports from local physicians complaining of the unsanitary and poor quality of milk were cited to show that some action should be taken without delay to remedy this practice.

Peking, Nov. 17.—(By Associated Press.)—General Hsu Shu Cheng, former commander of Chinese frontier forces in Mongolia and leader of the Anfu elements which have been opposing the government, has escaped from the Japanese legation, where he took refuge last summer.

Chinese authorities are greatly disturbed over the incident because of alleged activity of Anfuists both at Urga, in Mongolia, and in southern China. The Chinese have warned the counsels of other nations here not to lend any assistance to General Hsu.

Major League Teams May Play 168 Games

New York, Nov. 18.—When the major leagues hold their annual meetings in February, they will consider a proposition to lengthen each team's schedule to 168 games instead of 154 as heretofore, it was learned today.

Proponents of the plan argued that since many of the teams are allowed to play on Sunday on their home grounds, the season would not be unduly lengthened by the proposed change.

CHICAGO CHIEF OF POLICE GOT WANTED CROOKS

New Chief Made First Arrest Early This Morning.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 17.—Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris made his first arrest early today after having been in office a few days. James Royal and James Brennan, caught for three weeks in connection with the $265,000 robbery of a messenger of the Hyde Park state bank, were arrested.

Special prominence was given the arrests as it was said to have been the failure of the police to apprehend the robbers which brought much protest against former Chief of Police John J. Garrity, who recently resigned.

Liberty bonds to the amount of $8,657.40 were recovered together with coupons. This recovery, with the $257,000 in checks found two weeks ago by President John A. Carroll of the bank, comprises the entire loss.

President Carroll elicited a confession from Edward Royal, a brother of James naming his brother, Brennan and a man named Doherty. Chief Fitzmorris said today Doherty would be arrested shortly. Edward Royal was traced by the bank president after the latter said he had sought aid from the police in vain. He sighted the other, three at a football game at Stage Field recently but said the police laughed at him when he endeavored to have them arrest the suspects. The two arrested today were about to flee to Canada.

ITALY'S PREMIER UPHELD BY LARGE VOTE OF CABINET

Socialists Defeated in Motion to Censure Government.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Rome, Nov. 17.—Heated debate, during which Premier Giolitti defended his political record and policies of his government preceded the vote of confidence given the cabinet in the chamber of deputies today. A Socialist motion censuring the government's internal policy was defeated 202 to 83.

Socialist deputies violently accused the premier of being a reactionary and a supporter of nationalist followers of Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio in their opposition to Socialists. The premier answered that his entire past was a protest against such an accusation.

Referring to the accusation that he committed with the Nationalists, the premier asked the Socialists: "Do you seriously consider them my friends?" He was answered by applause and laughter. "During the war," he said, "you Socialists and myself had the same relations with the Nationalists. I have ordered the repression of all violence, regardless of which side fomented it. No one can prove there is a freer country than Italy."

When the premier made this statement, Conservative and Catholic deputies shouted "Russia!" ironically toward the Socialist side of the chamber.

"There can be true liberty only when all live within the law," declared the premier. "Parliament can change laws but as long as it exists a government must secure respect for them. We can meet on a common ground for the maintenance of public liberty, and for assisting the proletariat to arise but to attain these ends there must be an accord between classes, and not a struggle between them. Only accord between us can save the country."

Think Indian Should Be in Govt. Office

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 18.—Resolutions urging the appointment of a member of their race as commissioner of Indian affairs and advocating increased educational facilities for Indians who are wards of the government were prepared for introduction at the ninth annual conference of the Society of American Indians.

They assert that as long as the Indians are under the supervision of the government their interests would be served best by having one of their own race in the office of Indian affairs, explaining he would be better acquainted with their needs.
Proponents of the movement said if it received the endorsement of society the subject would be brought to the attention of the incoming administration.

DECATUR COUPLE

HAPPILY TELL OF TRUTONA'S MERIT

Both Man and Wife Are Benefited By Perfect Tonic in Way That Pleases Them.

Decatur, Ill., Nov. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. William Shadrick, well-known Decatur people of 511 South Jackson St., have both benefited greatly through the use of Trutona, and they are confident, that many sufferers, may gain similar relief from the Perfect Tonic.

"Trutona has made a new woman of me, and done it after my system had been run down, for several months," Mrs. Shadrick says. "I had been suffering terrible pains in my left side. At night I'd have to rub them for an hour or so, before I could go to sleep. I was always tired and had no energy. The little food I ate, had to be forced down."

"But I'm gaining in weight, and my face is much fuller than before, since I've taken Trutona. I don't suffer the former terrible pains in my side, and I sleep just fine at night. I'm always hungry. It seems. My bowels are in splendid condition."

"I can't speak too highly of Trutona," says Mr. Shadrick. "I'm feeling as young and as full of pep as any school kid nowadays. Before, I was tired and worn out all the time. My appetite was poor and I didn't sleep well."

"It sure makes a man feel good to sleep well at night as I do, since using Trutona. My appetite has never been better, and my work is really a pleasure, instead of a torture, now. Oh, I know I can't praise Trutona, too highly, when I think of what the wonderful medicine has done for me."

Trutona is sold in Dixon at Rowland Bros. drug store.

LIFE TERM FOR KIDNAPPER ALL COURT CAN GIVE

Inability of State to Produce Body of Baby, Cause.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Philadelphia, Nov. 18.—Life imprisonment is the maximum penalty that can be imposed upon August Pasquale "The Crank," self-confessed abductor and slayer of 13 months old Blakey Coughlin who yesterday pleaded guilty in the Montgomery county court to second degree murder and kidnapping for extortion.
The commonwealth accepted the plea of second murder, which carries a penalty of 20 years imprisonment because of its inability to produce the body of the child or a witness who had seen the body.
The penalty for kidnapping is life imprisonment.
Judge Swartz before whom the case was heard, said he would pronounce the sentence Saturday. Owing to the prisoner's plea of guilty no jury was empaneled.

In his alleged confession, "The Crank," said that after he stole the child from its crib on June 2, he accidentally smothered it under his coat and the same night cast it into the Schuylkill river tied to an iron rail. Divers found the iron rail but repeated search in the vicinity of the spot where "The Crank" said he had thrown the body failed to reveal any trace of it.

Japanese Debate on War with Uncle Sam

Tokio, Nov. 17.—(By Associated Press)—Two thousand University students met here last night to discuss the question, "Shall Japan Fight America?" The debate lasted four hours and was marked by vehement oratory, but the audience remained in good humor during the evening. Managers of the meeting out of deference to policy, decided not to take a vote on the merits of the question as disclosed by speakers, and apparently the audience was equally divided as to expediency of war between the two countries. Speakers agreed that action of California in legislating against Japanese owning property in that state furnished a sufficient cause for hostilities but they differed concerning the expediency of going to war. Many pointed out the fact of America's wealth and preparedness contrasted against Japan's weakness. One student thought that if Japan attacked America over this question other white races might combine against Japan. The orators freely praised America's past friendliness for this country, but added: "Now that Japan has grown up America is tired of us."

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Constantinople, Nov. 17.—It is not yet known where the Russian army will be re-organized. Eighteen Russian organizations met at the consulate here yesterday and adopted the following resolution:
"Representatives of all Russian organizations feel that the struggle against the Bolshevik must continue and consider General Baron Wrangel as their leader."
It was decided to create a Russian national committee.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured by lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 10 Marceline Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured, you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

Britain Declines to Attend Irish Hearing

Washington, Nov. 17.—The British embassy today notified the committee of 100 investigating conditions in Ireland that it did not approve of the purpose to be served or the methods to be followed in the committee's hearings to begin here tomorrow and therefore it could not accept the committee's invitation to be represented.

The embassy's reply, addressed to Oswald Garrison Villard, editor of The Nation, who appointed the committee, declared the only outcome of the inquiry would be the spread of propaganda and that there was nothing in the composition of the committee itself to remove from it the idea it was not prejudiced in advance.

Facts for Sick Women

Reliable Information
 All American women know of the great success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in restoring to health women who suffered from ailments peculiar to their sex, yet there are some who are skeptical and do not realize that all that is claimed for it is absolutely true—if they did, our laboratory would not be half large enough to supply the demand, though today it is the largest in the country used for the manufacture of one particular medicine.

The Facts contained in the following two letters should prove of benefit to many women:

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I suffered with organic inflammation and displacement. When lifting I had such pain and bearing down that I was not able to stand up, and it hurt me to walk or go up or down stairs. I was going to a doctor without any results and he said the safest thing would be to have an operation. I met a lady who told me she had three operations and was not well until she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I felt relief after taking two bottles of Vegetable Compound and I kept on with it until I was cured. I always use Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and they are fine. Everything need to turn over on my stomach and the Liver Pills relieved that."—Mrs. A. ROGERS, 603 Fargo Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.

MANY BABYLESS TOWNS REPORTED THROUGH POLAND

Thousands of Infants Died of Starvation Recently.

New York.—Babyless towns thickly dot the forlorn landscape of Poland and in many of them there are no longer any births, declared Dr. Herschel C. Walker, chief of the American Relief Administration, who recently returned from that country. He supervised the distribution of American food to Polish sufferers.

All of the infants born in the stricken areas in the last two years succumbed to starvation and the diseases it introduces, or they have been removed to places where they can be properly fed, Dr. Walker said.

Hundreds of houses that once echoed a baby's laugh are gone, and whole families live in squalid dugouts without light or ventilation.

Some mothers have kept their children alive on grasses and roots made into thin, tasteless soup. Hunger brought the slaughter of cows by the wholesale and milk can be had now only by the wealthy.

These conditions precluded maintenance of the ordinary birthrate, but other sufferings have obliterated it almost entirely in parts of Poland, said Dr. Walker. Homes have passed away with the departure of both men and women for service in the army. Emaciation of the women and

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is very easily prepared, and there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint bottle, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a most positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft.
